THE COURT ROUTINE

Grand Jury Indicts Another First Mate.

JOHN MAILUA NOW ON TRIAL

Interpreter Crawford Has Been Discharged From Criminal Charge.

The case of the Territory vs. Harvey Chilton, larceny in the second degree, came up before the second judge of the First Circuit Court yesterday morning. The principal prosecuting witness having left the Territory, a nolle prosequi was entered.

On motion of the Deputy Attorney-General the case of Manuel Silva, charged with liquor distilling, was placed at the foot of the calendar.

Martin Bowers, a defaulting juror, was excused by the court upon explaining that he was ignorant of the whereabouts of the court room.

The case of John Mailua, who is charged with assaulting a public officer, occupied the entire afternoon and will be continued this morning. Captain Fox and two other witnesses were examined yesterday afternoon and it is probable that the case will not be concluded until late this afternoon. The juryman are as follows: Robert Harrison, Arthur Coyne, M. W. Parkhurst, W. H. Smith, P. E. R. Strauch, Captain I. Bray, J. J. McDonald, F. B. Damon, A. Trask, Chas. Bon, T. R. Mossman and I. Adams.

A number of criminal cases appealed from the District Court were disposed of yesterday morning by the First Judge of the First Circuit Court.

Six Chinese, Hong Sing Loy, Kom Sing, Ah Sam, Ah Leong and Yo Kwam, charged with having sold tobacco without a license and convicted by the lower court, had their fines of $10 each, and $3.50 costs in each case, confirmed, the judgment of the District Court being sustained.

INTERPRETER CRAWFORD ACQUITTED.

In the case of the Territory vs. W. H. Crawford, in which the defendant was charged with conducting a gambling game, and found guilty of such charge by the lower court, J. T. De Bolt, defendant's attorney, yesterday filed a motion to quash the charge, and the case coming up immediately, the Circuit Court sustained the motion and ordered the defendant discharged.

COURT NOTES.

Answer was yesterday made by the defendant in the suit for divorce of Sam Moe vs. Chong Quon, the same being a general denial of the allegations of the complaint of libelant.

In the ejectment suit of Chung Man Sing vs. Makano Cheung Amana, the defendant, by his attorneys, Andrews, Peters & Andrade, yesterday filed an answer of general denial, stating that among other defenses the defendant will rely upon the defense of adverse possession.

The defendant in the case of the Wailuku Sugar Company vs. the Hawaiian Commercial and Sugar Company, has filed notice to place said cause on the Supreme Court calendar. Notice has been given by Robertson & Wilder, attorneys for defendants in the case of the Territory vs. Her Majesty Liliuokalani and John H. Wilson, that the demurrer filed in said case will be presented before the court at 10 a. m. on Saturday, April 13.

Motion was yesterday filed by the plaintiff in the case of Ket On Fui Kon Society vs. Gnan Chong, to set the cause for hearing and notice given that such motion will be presented on Saturday, April 13th, at 10 o'clock a. m., before the First Circuit Court.

THE PRINCES DEMUR.

The defendants in the case of Antone Bright vs. David Kawanakoa and Jonah Kalaniana'ole, as administrators of the Kapilani Estate, yesterday filed a demurrer to plaintiff's complaint, upon the grounds that the First Circuit Court has no jurisdiction of the subject matter of the action, and that the complaint does not state facts sufficient for a cause of action. Kinney, Ballou & McClanahan represent the defendants, and their certificate is given that said demurrer is not intended for delay.

THE GRAND JURY.

The grand jury yesterday indicted George E. Lee, first mate of the American vessel Star of Bengal, for assault upon one, William King, a sailor. It failed to find an indictment against Lin Shin Chow, the Chinese interpreter, charged with bribery.

PROBATE.

The will of Kimokeo Kawaha, deceased, has been admitted to probate, and it has been ordered by the court that letters testamentary be issued to Waioala, without bonds, the said Waioala being the executrix named in decedent's will. Inventory is to be filed within fifteen days, and notice to creditors given according to law.

Andrew Brown yesterday filed a motion, accompanied with his affidavit, with the First Circuit Court, moving that he be appointed trustee for Mabel Phillips, to whom he alleges, there is due the sum of $186.15 from Bishop & Co's bank, which sum was placed on deposit with said bank by Andrew Phillips, now deceased, the brother of said Mabel Phillips, and of whom she is the sole and lawful heir.

The court gave a decree, ordering the appointment of the applicant, as moved.

RETURN OF SUMMONS.

Return was yesterday made by Deputy Sheriff Chillingworth of subpoenas issued in the case of the Territory of Hawaii vs. H. Luning, showing service upon Peter Baron and Victoria Buffandean.

Return has been made by High Sheriff Brown of subpoenas in the case of the Territory vs. John Mailua, showing that due and diligent search failed to reveal the whereabouts of Enoka and Kauhali, and the writ was therefore returned unserved. Return of summons has been made in the case of the Territory vs. Manu, showing service upon Koamea, Kaimi, Palaia, Auka (alias Koolau), and D. Kaapa.

In the case of Annie Kamakele vs. C. A. Kamakele, Deputy Sheriff Albert McGurn has made return of summons showing service upon C. A. Kamakele. CASES FOR TODAY.

The First Judge of the Circuit Court will hear the following probate cases today:

Petition for allowance to widow in estates of J. C. Medeiros and A. de Souza; petition for an order to sell real estate in estate of A. C. Pestant; motion, estate of James Dodd; master's reports in estates of Jacob Jurgensen and Achi K. Akau.

Two appealed criminal cases on mitigation will also be heard today.

KILL THE DANDRUFF GERM

Or Your Hair Will Fall Out Till You Become Bald.

Modern science has discovered that dandruff is caused by a germ that digs up the scalp in scales, as it burrows down to the root of the hair, where it destroys the hair's vitality, causing falling hair, and, ultimately, baldness. After Prof. Unna, of Hamburg, Germany, discovered the dandruff germ, all efforts to find a remedy failed until the great laboratory discovery was made which resulted in Newbro's Herpicide. It alone of all other hair preparations kills the dandruff germ. Without dandruff, hair grows luxuriantly. "Destroy the cause, you remove the effect."

ACID USED TO FIND A THIEF

An Almost Obliterated Number on a Stolen Bicycle Revealed.

Yesterday the police discovered a stolen bicycle under peculiar circumstances. The bicycle vanished on December 31, 1900, from Davis & Co's grocery store, being then the property of Chang Sui. It was a Tribune wheel, numbered 47202, enamelled blue and was comparatively new when hypotheated. A Japanese was seen yesterday riding a blue wheel, and as the name plate had been removed, the suspicions of Special Police Officer Nigel Jackson who has the stolen wheel cases in hand were aroused. The wheel was overturned and the number sought in the usual place on the underside of the pedal-axle. Jackson discovered that the number had been filed off. The bike was then taken to a local cycler and an attempt made to ascertain the number. The wheel was placed in an inverted position on the floor. Around the space formerly occupied by the number, putty was packed, and into this acid was poured. At the end of twenty minutes the spectators had the pleasure of witnessing the formation of three figures attaining a greenish hue. These were made out to be "2-0-2." These figures fitted pretty well into the number hoped for—47202—and in half an hour the "4-7" appeared quite plainly and the identity of the wheel was established.

The Japanese who was then in possession of the bike said he had purchased it from a Japanese carpenter for $10, and he understood that the carpenter had bought the wheel for $7.50 from a native boy, and the latter undoubtedly stole the machine. The police at once began to investigate, and as the present Japanese owner of the wheel appeared to be anxious to clear himself and give all the information possible, Jackson has hopes of arresting the thief.

The Japanese was loth to part with his wheel but took the matter philosophically, saying he would make the carpenter return to him his $10, and the carpenter could look to the native boy for his $7.50, and the native boy could, well, he could go to jail.

Jackson has a list of thirty-three stolen wheels, and thus far has recovered four. He does not believe that many wheels have been taken away on transports. It is, however, certain that some bikes have been carried aboard such vessels and are probably at this time being ridden about the capital of the Philippines by enthusiastic Filipino wheelmen.
